

26th Annual Fantasy of Lights

Snow Court Recognition

Friday, November 27, 2009

Attention all teachers/scouts leaders/churches/neighbors / non-profit organizations: Do you know of any students who deserve to be recognized for their community efforts or something they've done for the betterment of their community? The Howell Area Chamber of Commerce Foundation would like to recognize these individuals at the Fantasy of Lights Parade.

Nominate a student who has participated in a volunteer effort within the last 12 months. Winners will ride on a float in the Fantasy of Lights parade (Friday, November 27) designed by Irish Construction and receive gifts from local businesses. The winners will be announced by November 20th.

Nomination Requirements:

- * A typed paragraph outlining the volunteer's achievements, include name and phone number of person submitting nomination
- * Letter from organization confirming the volunteer's efforts
- * Volunteer effort must have occurred within the last 12 months
- * Student must be in Kindergarten through 12th grade in Livingston County
- * Pictures of the volunteer activity welcomed, but not required

Children in grades Kindergarten through 2nd grade may be entered in one of three ways: Draw a picture of how they might volunteer in the community; write a paragraph on why volunteering in the community is important; or be nominated for volunteer efforts.

Contest Deadline: November 13, 2009 - In person, by mail or email
(must be postmarked by this date)
